Colours of Diwali

Free colouring pages · ages 3 to 6

My name: _____

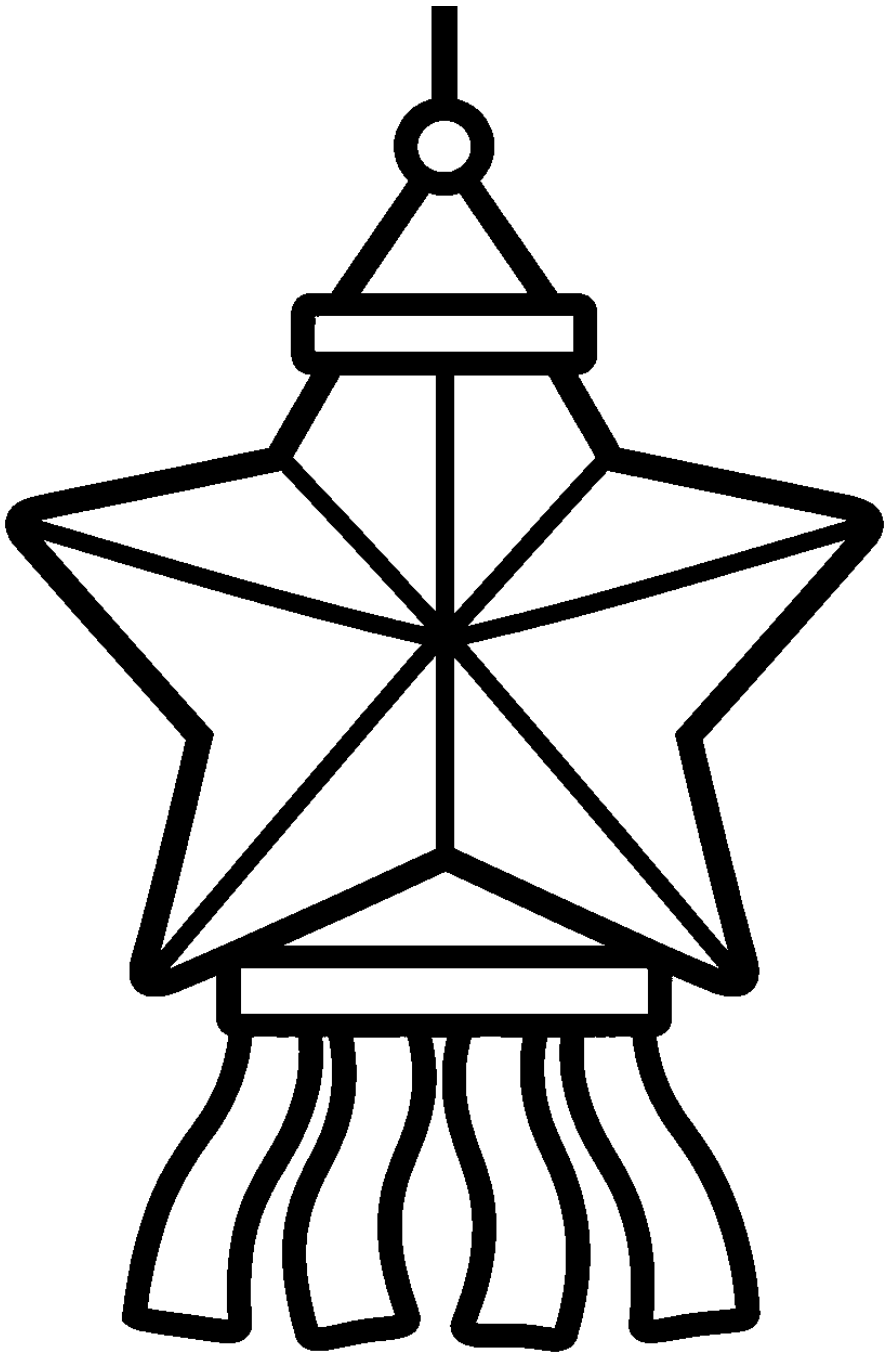

For parents: one page a day. Let your child choose the colours, and praise the effort even when the colour goes outside the lines. Trace the word under each picture together and say it aloud.

Colour the flame yellow and orange.

Trace the word

Diya Diya Diya

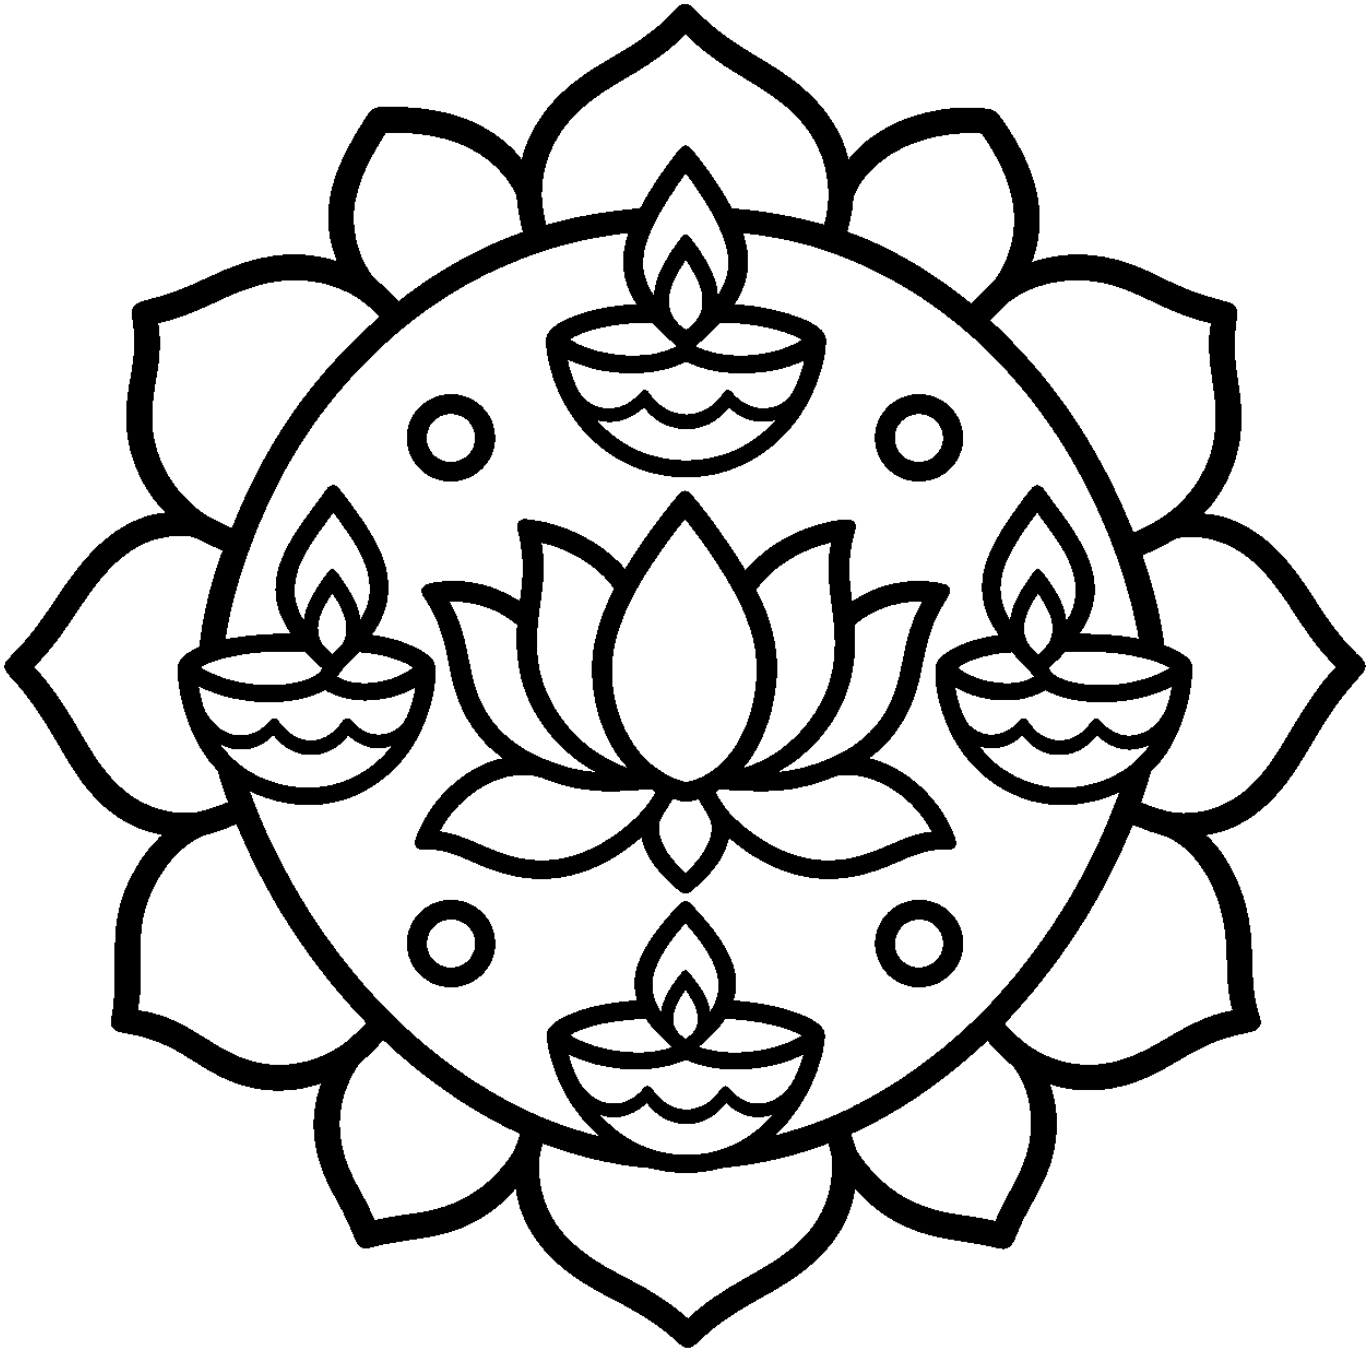

Use your three favourite colours on the lantern.

Trace the word

Lantern

Lantern

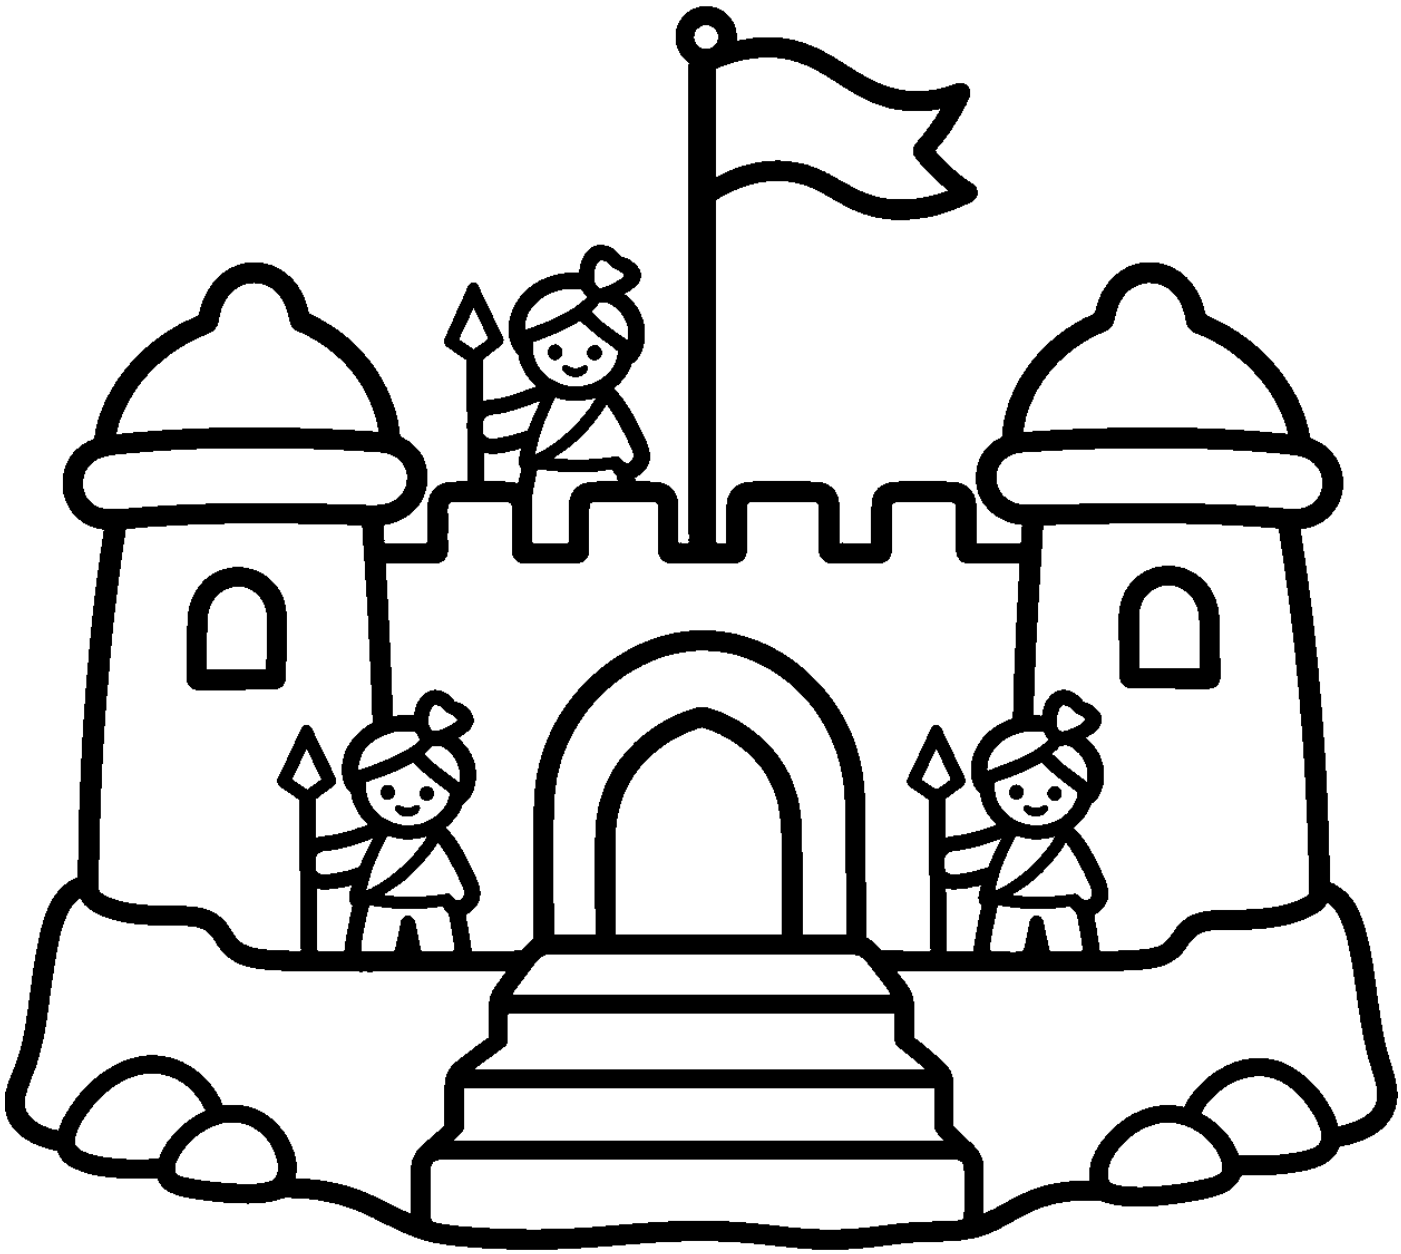

Give every petal a different colour.

Trace the word

Rangoli

Rangoli

What colour is the flag on the fort?

Trace the word

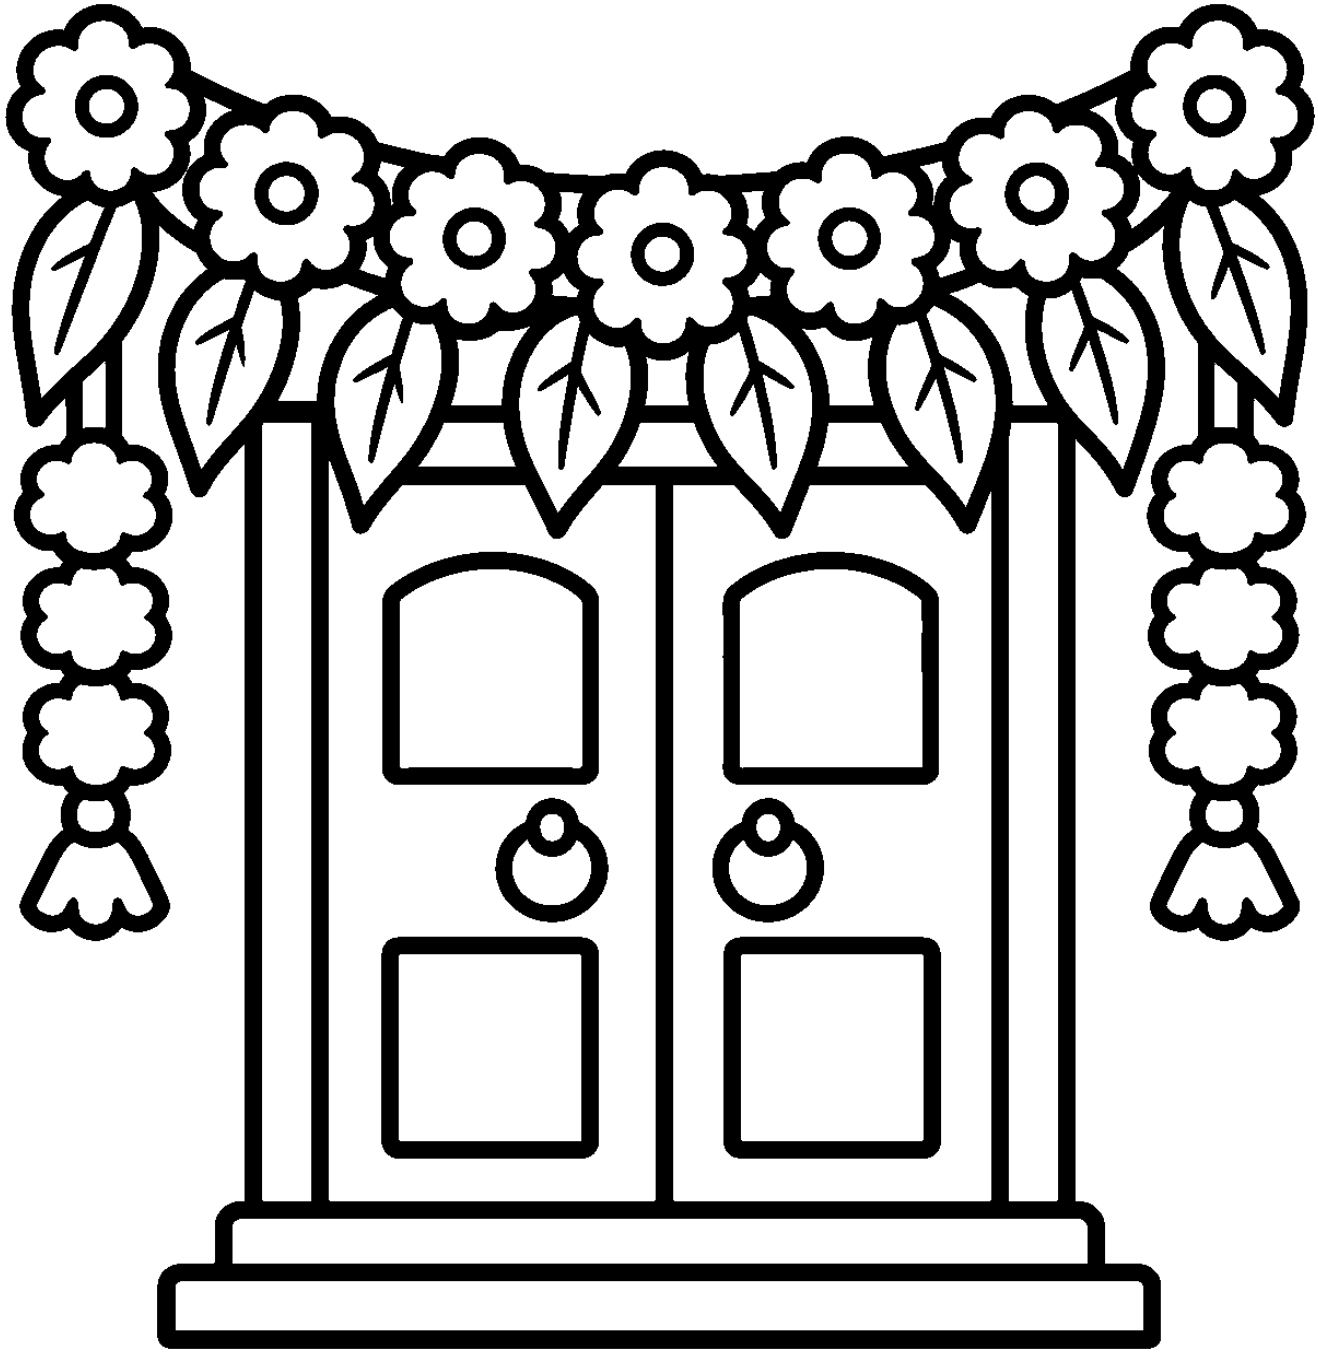

Fort Fort Fort

How many ladoos? Count them, then colour.

Trace the word

Sweets Sweets Sweets

Orange marigolds and green mango leaves.

Trace the word

Toran Toran Toran

A blue night sky and bright, shiny lights.

Trace the word

House House House

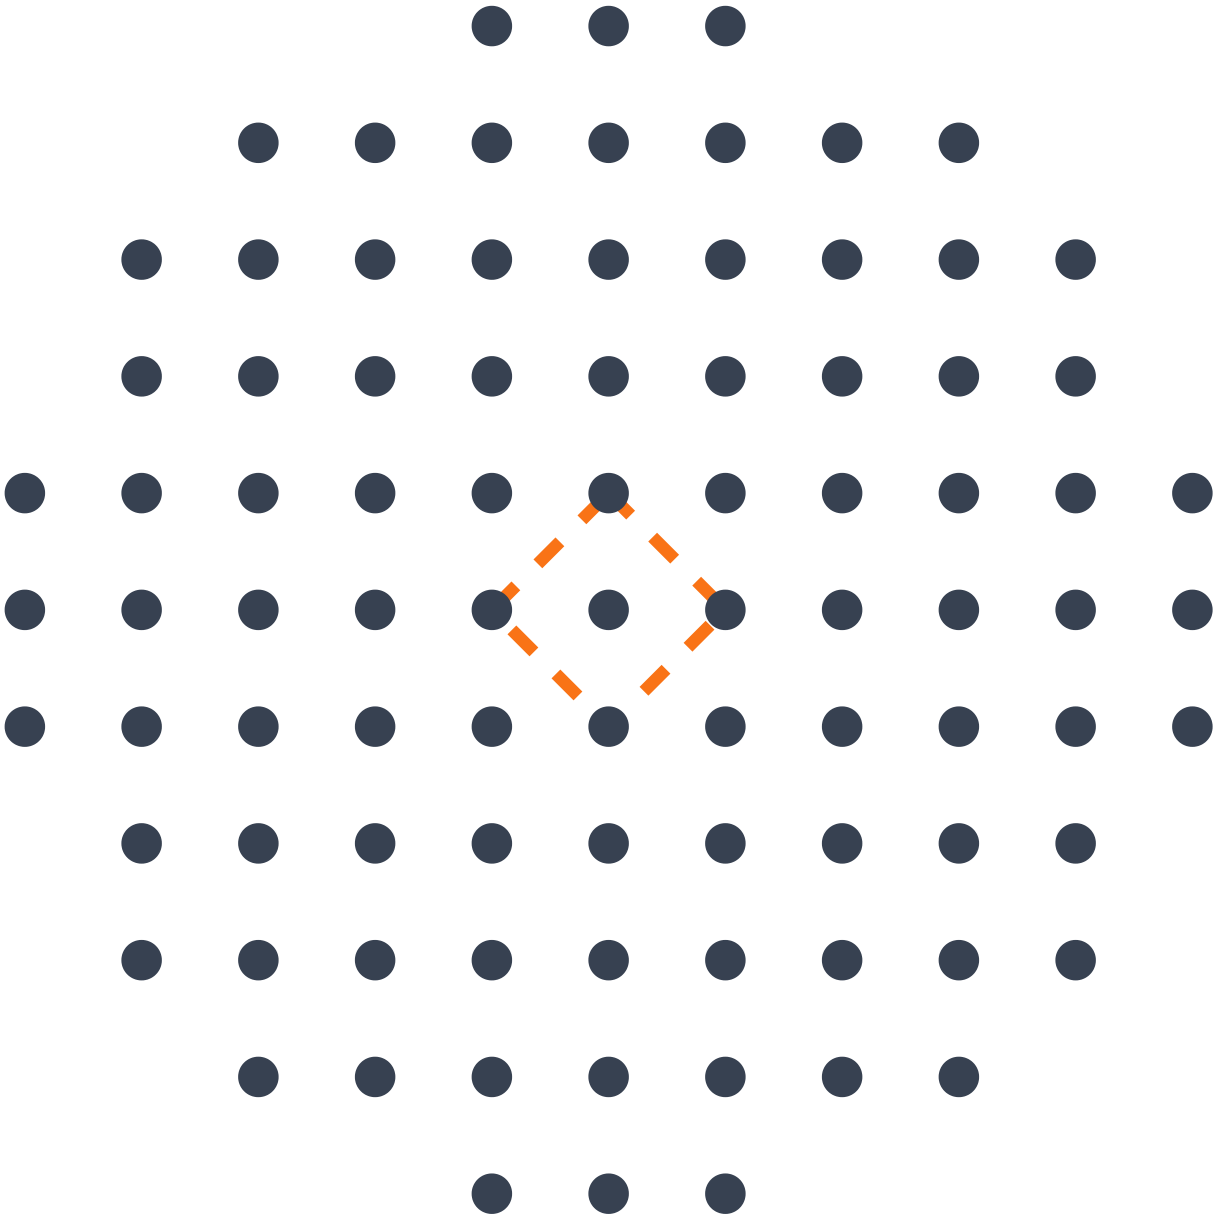

Draw your own pattern on the gift box.

Trace the word

Gift Gift Gift

Make your own rangoli

Join the dots to make your own rangoli, then colour it.

My Diwali

What do you like most about Diwali? Draw it here.

Happy Diwali!

These pages are free from Digital Seller. Print them, and share them with other parents if you like.

Want more pages for 20–30 minutes a day? Our Colour & Learn activity book has English A–Z, numbers and pictures to colour, with Hindi and Marathi editions included in the same purchase. You can see a free sample first.

To get new free pages by email every month, leave your email at digital-seller.shop. Only if you want to, and you can stop any time.

digital-seller.shop